

Costs statement

May 2025

This statement details our costs for the financial year from 1 November 2023 to 31 October 2024 in line with the Legal Services Boards (LSB) principles of cost transparency<sup>1</sup>.

Regulated community

At 31 October 2024 we regulated 178,859 individuals including 171,697 practising solicitors, 7,027 Registered foreign lawyers, 125 Exempt European lawyers and 10 Registered European lawyers<sup>2</sup>.

This was an increase of 3.5% on the previous year.

We also regulate solicitors' firms. At 31 October 2024 there were 9,147 regulated firms, a reduction from 9,377 at 31 October 2023.

Income and expenditure

We are funded primarily from practising fee income collected from solicitors and law firms, with additional income from regulatory activities such as authorising firms to offer legal services. We also work to recover costs spent on intervening into law firms, taking disciplinary action and administering a Compensation Fund.

SRA Funding	2022/23 (£m)	2023/24 (£m)
Practising fee income	60.6	68.1
Compensation Fund income	23.7	15.6
Education and training income	19.2	36.6
Other income	3.6	4.7
Grants	0	0.1
Total income	107.1	125.1
Operating expenses	-106.8	-120.7
Operating surplus	0.3	4.4

Full financial statements are available on our website.

Expenditure increased significantly from 2022/23 to 2023/24 as a result of additional costs related to the Solicitors Qualifying Examination, which was offset by increases in income.

Practising Certificate fees 2023/24

53% of the practising certificate fees are retained by the SRA, 28% of fees fund the activities of the Law Society and 19% is collected on behalf of the LSB, LeO, FCA and SDT.

Reserves

- As at 31 October 2024 the SRA had reserves of £23.9m
